

Best Wishes for 2015 from Judy & John Cushing!

Our Year in Photos 2014, clockwise, from top left:

- January found us skiing at Red Mountain, BC, Canada – searching for snow!
- February through May, however, brought good skiing at Mt. Bachelor in Bend. John made almost a million vertical feet and Judy (commuting) got half that.
- June, July, and August brought hiking and canoeing – at Nisqually Delta in Olympia, Lucky Lake with friend Russ Fox, and Hosmer Lake.
- in October we reorganized our cactus garden, which Hoover discovered as the place to sun himself. Hoover volunteered to replace our dear black cat Marcel the day after he died in 2013, so we call Hoover Marcel's Ghost.
- The year's highlight was a 16 day September dory trip down the Grand Canyon!
- In November, VisWeek in Paris! We stayed near St. Sulpice & Le Café du Metro.
- December 2013 - Newport Aquarium with John's brother Roger and his wife Judy.

The photos tell the best story, but here are some highlights: John is still restoring and selling old radios, TVs and Macintoshes on eBay, and Judy taught her last quarter at Evergreen – hosting a lecture series of CS grads on the “Cutting Edge” and team-teaching Student Originated Software which she started 30 years ago.
