

RESUME

Office Address:

Lab 1

The Evergreen State College Olympia, WA 98505

e-mail: meyerknh@evergreen.edu

EDUCATION

Ph.D. Interdisciplinary Political Studies, The Union Institute, (Cincinnati) 1990.

Thesis: Nuclear Siege to Nuclear Cease-fire. Winner of the Sussman Award for Excellence.

M.A. Communications, University of Pennsylvania, (Philadelphia) 1971.

B.A. History, Oxford University (England), 1969.

PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

TEACHING —THE EVERGREEN STATE COLLEGE

2014 -15: Planned teaching includes Timely and Timeless Work for Sustainability (Undergraduate) and Managing when Differences Matter (MPA - graduate)

1985 - present: Undergraduate, team-taught, interdisciplinary courses:

(a) Strategic and Regional Issues: Courses on international relations and peacemaking with a special emphasis on Asian regional issues

(b) Ethics and Social Harmony: Courses on moral education and social diversity, comparisons between US and Japanese education

(c) Participation in Public Life: Courses on community design and public advocacy including quantitative research in the public interest

1997 - present: Faculty in the Master in Public Administration Program, teaching the annual elective centered on management in the midst of conflict and difference.

OTHER TEACHING

2009 & 2010: Graduate Institute of Peace Studies, Kyung Hee University, Korea Visiting

Professor: Global Ethics and Justice, and NE Asian Regional Relationships.

2006: Hyogo Prefectural University, Japan Exchange Faculty: America's International Relationships.

1990 – 2004: The Graduate School, Union Institute and University, Committee and Faculty:

Doctoral Seminars: Ethics and Violence; Research Methods and Social Meaning; Public Action and Public Values

Doctoral dissertation Committees including:

Women Elders: Making Social Change in Apartheid South Africa.

International Humanitarian Relief and Conflict Resolution.

International Leadership in Non-Governmental Organizations.

Feminist study of social change movements and legislation.

1997 - 2000: University of Washington, Adjunct Faculty: Ethics of War and Peace, and Civic Engagement.
1992: University of Hawaii, Hilo, Visiting Associate Professor: The Cold War in the Pacific.

RESEARCH PROJECTS — Peacemaking: Bringing the violence in wars to an end and crafting a truly durable peace

2012 - present: NE Asian zones of conflict - Preliminary research on the role of popular and consumer culture in framing college student responses to current regional disputes.
2006 - present: NE Asia, National identity, memory and peace - Comparative study of contemporary approaches to museum and field-based education in schools and colleges in Japan, the Republic of Korea and the USA.
2001 - 2007: Post war and transitional justice - Special focus on models of amnesty and mercy. Cross cultural study of iconic figures in major religions specifically associated with mercy.
1990 - 2003: Ceasefire - The military strategy and politics of transitions from combat to peace. The ending of wars in modern, industrialized, democratic nations. Special emphasis on the Cold War, and then on attempts to bring wars to an end in the 1990s. Multi-regional focus.

COMPETITIVE HONORS & AWARDS

2012: HORN Fellowship — Hyogo Prefectural University, Kobe, Japan: Japanese Student responses to Korean Consumer Culture.
2009: Senior Fulbright Lecturer — Graduate Institute of Peace Studies, Kyung Hee University, Korea: History becomes Heritage.
2007: Sponsored Research Award — The Evergreen State College: War, Peace and Memory.
2001: NEH Summer Research Seminar — Global Ethics, Carnegie Council on Ethics in International Affairs and Columbia University: Mercy in Post-Conflict Transitional Justice.
2000: Sponsored Research Award — The Evergreen State College: Moral Education in Japan
1999 - 2001: Fund for Innovation Grant — The Evergreen State College: Interdisciplinary Workshops for Evening Weekend Students
1994 - 95: Bunting Fellowship — Radcliffe (Harvard University): Cease-fire to Enduring Peace.

PUBLICATIONS AND PRESENTATIONS

Published works (since 2001)

“Gardens: Cultivating A Global Citizen” (2014) in Wang, Xiao-Lei (王晓蕾) and Ronan Bernas eds. People without Borders: Becoming Members of Global Communities. (Forthcoming from Untested Idea)
“Improving International Relations at the Grass Roots: Japanese Student Attitudes to Japanese - Korean relations,” (April 2013) Japan Social Innovation Journal.
“History becomes Heritage,” (2011) in ed. Tsyrlina, T. Humanitarian Review, Special Issue on Multi-cultural Education 5(48). Perm, Prikamsky Social Institute.

“The Rise of Protest Diplomacy: Populism and ‘audience costs’ international negotiations in Asia,” (2010) Peace Forum, (35) Kyung Hee University

“Cold War and Reunification: Germany 1989, Korea 2009,” (2009) Peace Forum, (34), Kyung Hee University

“Peace Education,” “Multi-party Negotiation for Conflict Resolution” and “Spiritually Grounded Activism,” (2008) in ed. Schuler, D, Liberating Voices: A Pattern Language for Communication Revolution, Boston, MIT Press

“Feminist Teachers Needed: Tolerance for Paradox Essential” in The Art of College Teaching, 28 Takes, (2005) ed. Morgan, A, Knoxville, University of Tennessee Press

“Ethics from a Global Perspective” and “The Drama of International Relations” in Ethics and Global Politics: An Active Learning Sourcebook, (2004) in eds. Peach L, and Morgan A., Stirling, VA, Kumarian Press

Dangerous Peace-Making, (2003) Olympia, WA, Peace-Maker Press

Conference Presentations and Invited Lectures (since 2001)

2013: “Popular Culture at the Intersection of Tensions between Japan and Korea.” Society for Values in Higher Education, (Colorado)

“Debt and Honor: a cross cultural analysis.” Society for Values in Higher Education, - invited (Colorado)

2012: “Relationships among Japan, China and Korea: a wide historical perspective” Society of Intercultural Educators, Trainers and Researchers - invited (Nishinomiya)

“Community Action -- Joining others to do good work.” Hyogo Prefectural University - invited (Kobe)

“History becomes Heritage: School Field Trips In Japan and the USA.” Association for Asian Studies, (Toronto)

2011: “Museums in Dialogue, Korea and Japan, Korea and the United States.” Asia Pacific Peace Research Association (Kyoto) and at Yeongwol-Yonsei Forum on Museums (Yeongwol)

“Cultivating the Moral Self: Comparing Japanese, US and South Korean approaches to the practice of making a garden.” Association for Moral Education (Nanjing)

“Media Representations of Attitudes and Values about Children in Disaster Situations.” Association for Moral Education (Nanjing)

2010: “Museums Teaching the Histories of War and Peace: Victims and nationalists in an interdependent world.” Asia Pacific Network on Moral Education (Nagasaki)

2009: “Heritage or History? School study tours at World War II Sites in Japan, Korea and the United States,” Asian Studies Conference Japan, (Tokyo), and Fulbright Forum - invited (Seoul)

“The development of historical consciousness: an interdisciplinary and inter-cultural study of World War II in education today” Asia Pacific Network on Moral Education (Seoul),

2008: “The ‘Good War:’ US and Japanese schools transmit national heritage and national history.” Association for Moral Education (Indiana)

“From Hot Button to Law: Controversy follows a RAND study of Peace-making in WWII” - International Society for Political Psychology (Paris)

2006: “Remembering World War II: Comparing Museums and Memorials in Japan and the United States” Hyogo Prefectural University - invited (Kobe) and Miyazaki International College - invited (Miyazaki)

2005: “Global Politics, Ethics and Active Learning” International Studies Association International Conference, (Montreal).

2005: "The Drama of International Relations" Washington Center for Undergraduate Education National Conference (Washington).
2004: "Peace-Making: Iraq" Society for Values in Higher Education - invited plenary (Colorado).
2003: "South Africa's Amnesty: A model pathway to peace?" Peace and Justice Studies Association (Washington).
2002: "Mercy, Justice and Peace-Making" International Society for Political Psychology, (Berlin).
2001: "The Effectiveness of International Intervention in War-zones" Peace Studies Association, (Washington)

ACADEMIC ADMINISTRATION

1993-2000 - Campus Conflict Resolution and Adjudication, responsible for direct management and mitigation of campus conflicts across and within all segments of the community.

1995 - 00: Conflict Resolution Officer, responsible for the administration of the faculty conflict resolution policy.

1998 - 00: Campus Deadly Force Review Board

1993-98: Grievance Officer responsible for the administration and adjudication of the Student Conduct Code.

PROFESSIONAL ASSOCIATIONS

Association for Asian Studies

Asia Pacific Network for Moral Education

International Society for Political Psychology.

Society for Values in Higher Education — 1999-2005 Co-Convener of the section Religion and Violence

COMMUNITY ACTION AND SERVICE

2003-Present: Board Member and President, (2003-9) Garden Raised Bounty, Service and education for at- risk teens at an urban farm. Olympia, Washington.

1995 - 2006: Faith into Action study on redefining wealth. Olympia, Washington

1989-95: Fundraiser and Budget/Pledge organizer, Community for Interfaith Celebration. Olympia, Washington

1981-84: Board Member, National Chair, and Executive Committee, National Nuclear Weapons Freeze Campaign and Freeze Voter 84. St. Louis, Missouri and Washington DC